

THE SAINT LOUIS CONSULAR CORPS

ST. LOUIS REGION CONSULAR OFFICES

2017 DIRECTORY

March 17, 2017

Foreward

The Saint Louis Consular Corps was founded in 1950. Its members are career or honorary Consuls General, Consuls, or Vice Consuls appointed by the Heads of State of their respective countries and duly accredited by the United States Government.

Under applicable international law and treaties signed by the United States, when foreign nationals are arrested or detained by the United States Government, or any state or local government, they must be advised of the right to have their Consular Officials notified. In some cases, the nearest Consular Official must be notified of the arrest or detention of a foreign national regardless of the national's wishes. In all circumstances, Consular Officials are entitled to access to their nationals in detention and are entitled to provide Consular assistance. A list of those Countries whose Consular Official must be notified when one of its nationals is arrested or detained is on page 10 of this Directory.

Accordingly, we are hopeful that you will utilize this Directory to contact the appropriate Consular Official in those circumstances in which notification is required. In addition, we trust that you will find the Directory of assistance in notifying and contacting the Consular Officials listed herein when they may be of assistance to you or the governmental entity which you represent in facilitating official communications, trade, commerce or cultural exchanges.

SUMMARY OF REQUIREMENTS PERTAINING TO FOREIGN NATIONALS

United States Department of State Instructions for Federal, State and Local Law Enforcement and Other Officials Regarding Foreign Nationals in the United States, and the Rights of Consular Officials to Assist Them

1. When foreign nationals are arrested or detained, they must be advised of the right to have their consular officials notified.
2. In some cases, the nearest consular officials must be notified of the arrest or detention of a foreign national, regardless of the national's wishes.
3. Consular officials are entitled to access to their nationals in detention, and are entitled to provide consular assistance.
4. When a government official becomes aware of the death of a foreign national, consular officials must be notified.
5. When a guardianship or trusteeship is being considered with respect to a foreign national who is a minor or incompetent, consular officials must be notified.
6. When a foreign ship or aircraft wrecks or crashes, consular officials must be notified.

¹ Notification is not mandatory in the case of persons who carry “Republic of China” passports issued by Taiwan. Such persons should be informed without delay that the nearest office of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (“TECRO”), the unofficial entity representing Taiwan’s interests in the United States, can be notified at their request. See also footnote 129 on page 64.

² Mandatory only for foreign nationals who are not lawful permanent residents in the United States (i.e., “green card” holders). Otherwise, upon the national’s request. See the question “But since ‘green card’ holders are living in the United States permanently, why can’t I ignore consular notification requirements for them?” at page 12; see also footnote 18 on page 41.

³ The bilateral consular convention between the United States and the United Kingdom applies to British nationals from Great Britain (England, Wales, and Scotland); Northern Ireland; the Crown Dependencies of Jersey, Guernsey, and the Isle of Man; and the British Overseas Territories, including Anguilla, Bermuda, the British Virgin Islands, the Cayman Islands, Gibraltar, Montserrat, and the Turks and Caicos Islands, along with other island territories. Residents of the Overseas Territories may be traveling on a passport issued by the territory with no indication that the territory is British. Nevertheless, for them and all others from a British possession listed above, consular notification and access should be provided to the nearest U.K. consulate. For advice on how to ascertain whether an arrested or detained person is a British national, as well as a complete list of the Overseas Territories, see the question “What about British nationals” on page 23. For the U.S.–U.K. convention, see footnote 30 on page 45.
